1. The Council of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) considered the General Assembly resolutions indicated below at the sixth meeting of its seventy-sixth session, on 14 June 1972, with the following results:

(a) Resolution 2764 (XXVI) of 9 November 1971

The ICAO Council is to be seized on any matters calling for action pursuant to paragraph 6 of this resolution.

(b) Resolutions 2775 F (XXVI) of 29 November 1971; 2795 (XXVI) and 2796 (XXVI) of 10 December 1971; and 2871 (XXVI) and 2878 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971

The arrangements concluded by ICAO with the Organization of African Unity in regard to assistance on aeronautical training to refugees from Southern Rhodesia 1/ are to be extended to cover refugees from other Territories in Africa. Similar arrangements are to be concluded with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees regarding African refugees.

1/ Letter E 2/27 from ICAO, dated 26 June 1970. See also A/8314, p. 66.
(c) Resolutions 2775 G (XXVI) of 29 November 1971; 2871 (XXVI); and 2879 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971

While ICAO cannot play a very active role in the dissemination of information on the evils of apartheid, on the question of Namibia and on the evils and dangers of colonialism, it is ready to take part in consultation on appropriate arrangements for the publication of information of this nature in the ICAO Bulletin.

(d) Resolution 2871 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971

ICAO has no dealings with South Africa that have a bearing on Namibia. The designation "Namibia" is already used in the relevant ICAO documents. ICAO reaffirms its readiness to render assistance in aeronautical training to refugees from Namibia. 2/

(e) Resolution 2872 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971

The Secretary-General is authorized to provide assistance requested under paragraph 8.

(f) Resolution 2874 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971

The Secretary-General was directed to provide the information requested in paragraph 13 of this resolution.

2. The Council also considered other paragraphs of resolution 2874 (XXVI) as well as paragraph 3 of resolution 2878 (XXVI) which, it noted, contain provisions similar to those contained in resolutions 2555 (XXIV) of 12 December 1969 and 2704 (XXV) of 14 December 1970 which had been submitted to the eighteenth session of the Assembly of ICAO. In that connexion, the Assembly adopted resolution A/8314/Add.1 providing, inter alia, that

"... as long as the Government of South Africa continues to violate the United Nations General Assembly resolutions on apartheid and on the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples:

"(a) South Africa shall not be invited to attend any meetings convened by ICAO, except as provided in Articles 48 (b), 53 and 57 (b) of the Convention;

"(b) South Africa shall not be provided with any ICAO documents or communications except (i) in cases where the Convention specifically requires that such documents or communications be provided, and (ii) documents for meetings which South Africa is permitted to attend."
