In addition to the list of documents, every part contains a subject-index, an index of personal names where necessary and introductory notes giving information on the organization of the organs concerned. It also notes the unpublished records of meetings and sound recordings deposited in the Archives of the United Nations and the press releases concerning meetings.

The user of this volume will find it more helpful if he first reads carefully the explanations to the Check List and the Subject-Index.

The United Nations Library gratefully acknowledges the assistance of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and the Rockefeller Foundation in the preparation of the Check List.

ENTRY NUMBER. Documents are referred to by entry numbers in the index to this check list. Entry numbers do not appear on the documents and should not be used in citations.

LANGUAGE OF ISSUE. The language editions in which a document is issued are indicated as English (E), French (F), Spanish (S), Russian (R), Chinese (C), or bilingual English-French (E&F) texts.

DOCUMENT SYMBOL AND SHORT TITLE. The official document symbol number precedes the title entry. This symbol should be used in citing documents. In the case of publications without document symbol numbers, titles should be cited together with the session number, issue number, supplement number, and volume number, whichever is included in the entry. Title entries have been standardized and shortened or expanded in order to clarify the meaning of the titles and the authorship of the documents, so the entries do not always conform literally to the actual documentary titles. The collation shows the pagination of the English or bilingual English-French text only. The date appearing on each document below the document symbol number is usually the date of registration of the documentary text with the Bureau of Documents for publication and translation and should be the same in all language texts. The date of registration closes each entry. Corrigenda and revisions usually are grouped with the parent document in the same entry. Corrigenda are corrections of errors in the text, title, date and classification of documents, emendations of the translation, and additions of omitted text.

Addenda include supplementary material, such as annexes, tables, and other additional communications. Revisions are texts revised through formal amendment, or new editions prepared by the submitting delegation or by the Secretariat.

REPUBLICATION NOTES indicate the republication of whole documents in other documents or in the Official Records. In the case of resolutions only their republication in collected sets is indicated, in the case of draft resolutions no attempt is made to note the inclusion of their texts in the verbatim records of meetings.

REstricted SERIES. Documents of “restricted distribution” are indicated in this Check List by a black dot (*) before the symbol.

INTRODUCTORY NOTES give a short parliamentary history of the Commission and describe briefly each Committee session by session, including the date of its appointment, citing its terms of reference, naming its members and officers, listing its reports and document series symbol (if any), and tabulating its meeting records. The plenary meetings are shown in tables for each session. The tables indicate both published and unpublished meeting records and related press releases. Since drafts for the published meeting records should be deposited as a matter of course in the Archives of the United Nations, the tables under the heading “Archives” show only the unpublished manuscript records deposited in the Archives (“TPV”, “TSR”) and the sound recordings (“X”).

Terms of reference: In document E/258, entry 60. The Commission is composed of one representative from each of eighteen Members of the United Nations selected by the Council. Except for the initial period, the terms of office should be for three years. For the initial period, one-third of the members should serve for two years, one-third for three years, and one-third for four years, the term of each member to be determined by lot. Retiring members should be eligible for re-election. Accordingly, the Council at its 46th plenary meeting, on 2 October 1946, elected the eighteen nominating States.

The terms of office were determined by lot at the 47th plenary meeting on 3 October 1946, as follows, to serve for two years: China, the Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic, Lebanon, Panama, the United Kingdom, Uruguay; for three years: Egypt, France, India, Iran, the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; for four years: Australia, Belgium, Chile, the Philippines, the United States of America, Yugoslavia (see document E/223). In order to secure a balanced, expert representation in the various fields covered by the Commission, the Secretary-General was instructed to consult with the governments in question before they made their final nomination. The nomination was to be confirmed by the Council. Accordingly at the meeting on 10 December 1946 the Council confirmed the seventeen nominations submitted by the Secretary-General (document E/252). The Council decided at this meeting, with regard to the States from which nominations had not been received, that members nominated might serve provisionally pending their confirmation by the Council at its next session. The member nominated by Iran and the replacements of the representatives of Egypt, India, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and Yugoslavia were confirmed by the Council sitting as a Committee of the Whole on 26 March 1947 (document E/378/Rev.1). The replacements of the representatives of the Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics were confirmed at the 119th meeting on 16 August 1947 (document E/427/Rev.1; E/463/Add.1 and Add.2). The Council confirmed at the 173rd meeting, on 11 March 1948, the replacement of the representatives of Chile, Egypt and Iran (document E/1295).

At the 202nd meeting on 17 August 1948 the Council filled the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of office of the first third of the membership, initially appointed for two years, by re-electing China, Lebanon, the United Kingdom and Uruguay, and electing Denmark and Guatemala for a term of three years (See document E/988). The representatives nominated and re-nominated by the electing States together with replacements by Australia, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United Kingdom were confirmed by the Council at its 225th meeting on 29 August 1948 (documents E/987, E/987/Add.1, E/987/Add.2) and at its 272nd meeting on 11 March 1949 (documents E/1235, E/1235/Add.1, E/1235/Add.3, E/1308).

At its 315th meeting on 1 August 1949 the Council replaced the second third of the representatives whose terms of office were to expire by the end of 1949, electing Egypt, France, Greece, India, the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for a period of three years (1950-1952) (document E/1508). At the 338th meeting on 26 August 1949 the Council confirmed representatives nominated by India, Iran, Lebanon, Syria and the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic (document E/1516).

The Economic and Social Council, following the recommendation of the Commission on Human Rights (Nuclear) in its report E/36/Rev.1, entry 26, empowered the Commission on Human Rights to establish a Sub-Commission on Freedom of Information and of the Press. (Economic and Social Council Resolution 2/9). Accordingly, the Commission on Human Rights established at its 5th meeting, 29 January 1947, a Sub-Commission on Freedom of Information and of the Press. Terms of reference in document E/259, entry 80 approved by Economic and Social Council Resolution 46 (IV). The Sub-Commission was to be composed of twelve members selected by the Commission in consultation with the Secretary-General, subject to the consent of the Governments of which the persons were nationals. The terms of office were to be, in the first instance, one year subject to re-consideration by the Commission on Human Rights before the end of that period. The Council appointed the members accordingly by Resolution 46(IV) of 28 March 1947. (For the historical background See document E/CN.4/Sub.1/11, entry 541). On recommendation of the Sub-Commission reporting directly to the Economic and Social Council (document E/441, entry 565) the latter extended the terms of office of the members of the Sub-Commission for an additional session to be held in the year 1948. (Resolution 118(VI) of 1 March 1948). Subsequently, by Resolution 119(VIII) of 24 February 1949, the Council extended the life of the Sub-Commission up to 31 December 1952, terminated the terms of office of the incumbent members and empowered the Commission on Human Rights to select twelve new members to serve as experts in their personal capacity up to 31 December 1952. By the same Resolution the Council, following the recommendations of the Final Act of the United Nations Conference on Freedom of Information (document E/CN.4/Sub.1/68/Rev.1, entry 608), cancelled the terms of reference of the Sub-Commission as determined by Resolution 46(IV) and substituted new terms of reference. The Commission on Human Rights elected the new members of the Sub-Commission for the term ending 31 December 1951 at a special session on 1 April 1949. Membership; See entry 522.
