Page 8, Line 9

Mrs. HAMID ALI (India) said the French translation was inaccurate as "tradition" in this connection means "Hadith" the Law of the Prophet which is favourable to woman. She desired the elimination of "customary law", which grew up later, without religious sanction, to woman's disadvantage.

Page 8, Line 26

Mrs. HAMID ALI (India), agreeing with Mrs. Popova, pointed out that it was customary law in India which adversely affected the woman's right regarding divorce as laid down in the Koran. On being questioned by Miss Kenyon, she said that although women had considerable rights of divorce in Islam, they did not have equal rights with man. Therefore, she supported Mrs. Popova.