World Federation of United Nations Associations: Resolution adopted at the Second Plenary Assembly held at Marianski Lazne, Czechoslovakia, 17-21 August 1947, welcomes the Draft Resolution prepared by the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, is convinced that the effectiveness of the acceptance of this Declaration will largely depend on measures taken to ensure respect for it, which should include facilities for drawing public attention through the United Nations to violation of these specified rights. Such measures should include, besides legal obligations, provisions for bringing forward and judging alleged violations, and practicable measures of enforcement.
