SECRETARY-GENERAL REPORTS 'SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS' IN TALKS
WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF ARGENTINA AND UNITED KINGDOM

But 'Clarifications Are Still Needed'

The following statement was made today by the Spokesman for the Secretary-General:

The Secretary-General's discussions with the parties continued today and he met twice on separate occasions with the representatives of Argentina and the United Kingdom.

The Secretary-General has also informed the President of the Security Council of his talks.

Substantial progress has been made on several points but clarifications are still needed on some others.

The talks will continue tomorrow.
